THE SURE WAY OUT

We seize this golden opportunity to again acknowledge and appreciate the presence of our father, Pastor (Dr) E.S Awojide, LAWNA Territorial Chairman and Vice President, The Apostolic Church Nigeria at the September, 2021 Edition of LAWNA IREDE PRAYER PROGRAMME held at the National Temple Convention Ground, Olorunda, Ketu, Lagos on 3rd September, 2021.

In his brief exhortation themed – “In His Presence” – Psalm 16:11 viz “Thou will show me the path of life: in thy presence is fullness of joy, at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore”.

He emphasized that wherever Jesus is present joy, peace, blessing and wonder-working miracles shall abound namely, calling of Lazarus from the grave – John 11:1-44; Son of Widow at Nain resurrected – Luke 7:11-15. In essence, Baba emphasized that because of Christ's presence at the Holy gathering of saints, the dead spiritual and physical shall rise, the sorrowful will rejoice, the needy shall be blessed and the down-trodden will rise again in Jesus name. Amen.

Jesus is the Way, the Truth and the Life and whosoever cometh to Him shall never be disgraced or disappointed. He is the only sure Way out of every siege and disappointment. A sure refuge in the time of storm and serious life changing challenges. All other ways are usually calamitous and dreadful. What is your problem and what are you currently passing through as challenges and you feel there is no way out for you? What wilderness or desert are you currently passing through and you feel there is no way for you any longer? Cheer up God is more than capable to make a way for you even in the wilderness that is, the wilderness of your heart if you submit your life totally to Him and prepared to open up your heart to divine guides and counsellors through Christ Jesus. He will be your guide, hold you and instruct you on the way out as long as you are ready to accept Him as your LORD AND SAVIOUR.

Is your life filled with deceit, stealing, pilfering other people's goods, properties or materials or maybe you are a chain-smoker or used to drink strong drinks that has totally ruined your life or you swim in womanizing or adultery, fornicate at will and live a careless and carefree life? You need a re-think and decide immediately to accept JESUS as your Lord and Saviour.

THE THEME for the September, 2021 Edition of LAWNA IREDE PENTECOSTAL REVIVAL OF BLAZING FIRE was selected from the Book of Prophet Isaiah Chapter 43 verse 19 – “Behold, I will do a new thing; now it shall spring forth, shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert”.

The epic-center of Pastor M.A. Oke, National Evangelist, The Apostolic Church Nigeria's MESSAGE dwelt on the following cogent and salient points:

- A - Opening Message
- B - Some Godly Guides that would surely lead to your Way Out if properly followed and Annexed
 - Drawing conclusion on the subject-matter and Altar Call.

The MESSAGE was an eye-opener especially for those who live recklessly without any God-fearing trait(s) and ready to make a re-think by totally accepting JESUS with sincerity of purpose and preparedness to follow His footsteps and spiritual guidance.

We pray that the Lord will surely grant you a change of heart and spiritual focus on Christ Jesus. Other notable features include – Amazing Testimonies, Wonder-Working items of Prayer and Extracts from Our Daily Bread 2021 Edition namely “U n c h a n g i n g ”, September, 2021 and “It's Slippery Out There” – September 03, 2021.

Have a pleasant reading and God bless.

UNCHANGING

Psalms 135–136; 1 Corinthians 12

“Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever”.

Hebrews 13:8, Psalm 103:13–22

My wife, Cari, and I recently travelled to Santa Barbara, California—the city where we met and fell in love thirty-five years ago—to attend our college reunion. We planned to visit several places where we had spent some of the best hours of our youth together. But when we arrived at the location of our favourite Mexican restaurant, we found a building supply store there. A wrought iron plaque hung on the wall commemorating the restaurant and its four decades of service to the community.

I gazed on the barren but still familiar sidewalk, once dotted cheerfully with colourful tables and bright umbrellas. So much had changed around us! Yet in the midst of change, God's faithfulness never changes. David observed poignantly: “The life of mortals is like grass, they flourish like a flower of the field; the wind blows over it and it is gone, and its place remembers it no more. But from everlasting to everlasting the Lord's love is with those who fear him, and his righteousness with their children's children” (Psalm 103:15–17). David concludes the psalm with these words: “Praise the Lord, my soul” (v. 22).

The ancient philosopher Heraclitus said, “You can never step in the same river twice.” Life is always changing around us, but God remains the same and can always be trusted to keep His promises! His faithfulness and love can be counted on from generation to generation.

Reflect & Pray

How is it comforting to know that God never changes? When have you needed that assurance?

Almighty and eternal God, thank You that You never change and can always be trusted. Help me to rely on Your love and faithfulness today.

IT'S SLIPPERY OUT HERE! PSALM 141

We easily understand David's prayer, "Keep me safe from the traps set by evildoers" (Psalm 141:9). But we can also relate to his plea for protection from himself: "Set a guard over my mouth, Lord; keep watch over the door of my lips" (v. 3). David may have been fleeing from King Saul when he wrote this psalm. The restraint in his words matches his behaviour toward Saul. David refused to harm "the Lord's anointed" when he had the opportunity (1 Samuel 24:1–7; 26:7–24). He understood the temptation to say something inflammatory or to succumb to the "advice" to assassinate Saul (26:8). This may explain his reference to the "wicked deeds" (Psalm 141:4) he wished to avoid. David sought justice but left it up to God.

Years ago, when I was learning to ski, I followed my son Josh down what appeared to be a gentle slope. With my eyes on him I failed to notice he turned down the steepest hill on the mountain, and I found myself careening down the slope, completely out of control. I cratered, of course.

Psalm 141 shows how we can easily find ourselves slipping down sin's slope. Prayer is one of the ways we stay alert to those slopes: "Do not let my heart be drawn to what is evil" (v. 4) is a plea that echoes the Lord's Prayer almost exactly: "Lead [me] not into temptation, but deliver [me] from the evil one" (Matthew 6:13). In His goodness, God hears and answers this prayer.

And then I find in this psalm another agent of grace: a faithful friend. "Let a righteous man strike me—that is a kindness; let him rebuke me—that is oil on my head. My head will not refuse it" (Psalm 141:5). Temptations are subtle. We're not always aware that we're going wrong. A true friend can be objective. "Faithful are the wounds of a friend" (Proverbs 27:6 nkjv). It's hard to accept rebuke, but if we see the wounding as a "kindness" it can become an anointing that puts us back on the path of obedience.

May we be open to truth from a trusted friend and rely on God through prayer.

Reflect & Pray

What slippery slopes do you gravitate toward? In what ways can you set a guard over your heart?

Father, please keep my feet from straying. Help me to listen to You and good friends.
